PAPER and IDEA DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

Lancaster University Management School, Lancaster, UK: April 6-7, 2017

Western University, Ivey School of Business, London, Ontario, Canada: June 2-3, 2017

Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Faculty of Business, Hong Kong: June 29-30, 2017

The Editors of the Academy of Management Journal (AMJ) invite submissions for three paper and idea development workshops. The purpose of these workshops is to develop ideas for papers that could later be submitted for review in AMJ's Special Research Forum (SRF) on "NEW WAYS OF SEEING: Using Novel Theory and Meaningful Cross-disciplinary Collaborations to Advance Management Research."

About the Special Research Forum:

This Special Research Forum (SRF) encourages "new ways of seeing." This theme challenges our community of researchers, and beyond, to consider fresh, novel, and different theoretical positions, assumptions, and frameworks that expose and empirically examine new phenomena or permit new ways of seeing well-researched phenomena. In addition, new ways of seeing may also provide an impetus to engage in meaningful, ground-breaking partnerships with researchers in other disciplines—using, building, or extending conceptual frameworks, research designs, and analytic techniques rooted in disciplines outside of the management domain to advance our understanding of management issues. Although we encourage novelty in theorizing and methods, we will uphold AMJ's standards of logical and empirical rigor. The full Call for Papers can be found here:

About the Workshops:

The workshops will be 1.5 day events and will include presentations by AMJ's editorial team as well as presentations and roundtable discussions from participants.

Application to the Workshops:

Interested scholars should submit an extended abstract (between 5 and 10 pages of text) of their project proposals by the workshop deadline to Jason Shaw (jason.shaw@polyu.edu.hk). Participation on the program is competitive and attendance is by invitation only; space is limited. In order to maximize the number of projects discussed at the event only one author per project will be able to attend. The abstract should provide a synopsis of the theoretical frame and/or theory, the empirical approach, and how it is aligned with the "new ways of seeing" theme. Please contact Jason D. Shaw (jason.shaw@polyu.edu.hk) with questions and inquiries.
