

Academy of Management Learning and Education, in association with Durham University Business School, is pleased to invite you to:

THE ACADEMY OF MANAGEMENT LEARNING & EDUCATION
PAPER DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

Friday, February 28, 2020

10 am – 4 pm

Location: Durham University Business School
Mill Hill Lane, Durham, UK

The editors of The Academy of Management Learning & Education (AMLE) invite applications for a Paper Development Workshop (PDW) connected to the Special Issue of AMLE on:

“Learning and Education Strategies for Scholarly Impact: Influencing Regulation, Policy and Society through Research”

The workshop is designed to help you develop your paper for submission to the special issue. Authors will participate in roundtable presentations and developmental sessions led by members of the AMLE editorial team and special issue guest editors. The aim of the workshop is to provide you with practical advice and feedback to help you during the process of writing your paper for the special issue of AMLE.

Space is strictly limited and preference will be given to participants who are presenting working papers that demonstrate a good fit with the Special Issue. It is advised that you consult with the Call for Papers for the Special Issue by clicking here

Those who wish to have their paper reviewed and discussed should submit an extended abstract by Friday, January 14th, 2020. Extended abstracts should be no more than 10 pages, double spaced, excluding tables, figures and references. Please be sure to read and follow the AMLE guidance for contributors (click here), papers not formatted to AMLE style may be rejected for the workshop.

Please note that participation at the workshop does not guarantee the inclusion of the paper in the Special Issue, and due to time constraints feedback will only be provided to authors during the workshop.

To submit a paper, please click here

For questions about the special issue, please contact: Professor Usha Haley

Attendance is free and tea, coffee and lunch will be provided. However, you must cover your own travel and accommodation costs. Durham University Business School will provide you with information for booking accommodation and transport in the city. For local arrangements and directions, please contact Professor Tyrone Pitsis, AMLE Special Issue Associate Editor at tyrone.s.pitsis@durham.ac.uk and voice +44 191 3349426.

Tentative Schedule:

09.30 Tea & Coffee

10:00 Welcome and Introduction to Publishing for AMLE by Professor Bill Foster, AMLE editor in chief

10:20 How to Publish in AMLE by Professor Danna Greenberg, AMLE and Special Issue Associate Editor

10:40 Introduction to the Special Issue by Professor Usha Haley, AMLE Special Issue Editor

11:00 Roundtable Discussion and Workshopping of Papers & Ideas (including a break for lunch)

15:40 Closing Remarks